What are the risks and what could I get in return ?

Risk Indicator

1	2	3	4	5	6	7
---	---	---	---	---	---	---

Lower risk Higher risk

The summary risk indicator assumes you keep the Product until maturity end of the recommended holding period (5 years). The actual risk can vary significantly if you cash in at an early stage and you may get back less. The summary risk indicator is a guide to the level of risk of this Product compared to other products. It shows how likely it is that the Product will lose money because of movements in the markets or because we are not able to pay you.

We have classified this Product as 3 out of 7, which is a medium-low risk class. This rates the potential losses from future performance at a medium-low level, and poor market conditions are unlikely to impact our capacity to pay you.

In addition, you will be exposed to the following risks (not captured in the synthetic risk indicator), namely:

Credit risk: The issuer of a bond or other debt security (including, but not limited to, governments and their agencies, state and provincial governmental entities, supranationals and companies) may default on their obligations by failing to make payments due, or repay principal and interest in a timely manner which will affect the value of the debt securities held by the portfolio.

Equity risk: The value of equities and equity-related securities can be affected by daily stock market movements.

Use of derivatives: Derivatives are used for investment purposes and contribute to obtain, increase or reduce exposure to underlying assets.

Currency risk: The Product invests in overseas markets. It can be affected by changes in exchange rates which may cause the value of your investment to decrease or increase.

Liquidity risk: The Product will invest in illiquid investments (in particular but not limited to real estate assets and private equity type assets) which may not readily be sold within a reasonable timeframe and there can be no guarantee that the liquidity of the Product will always be sufficient to comply with redemption requests at the time they are made. Moreover, the Product may invest in investments that are subject to a lock-up period or closed ended. Any absence of liquidity may have an impact upon the liquidity of a Product's Shares and the value of its Investments. For this reason, when shareholders are entitled to request the redemption of their Shares, the processing of redemption requests may be delayed, including in the event of the absence of liquidity which may make it difficult to determine the Net Asset Value per Share of the Product's Shares and consequently lead to the suspension of Shares issues and redemptions.

Counterparty risk: The insolvency of any institutions providing services such as safekeeping of assets or acting as counterparty to derivatives or other instruments may expose the Product to financial loss.

Operational risk: Risk of loss resulting from human errors, inadequate or failed internal systems, processes or controls or from external events.

This Product does not include any protection from future market performance so you could lose some or all of your investment.

Beware of currency risk. If an Investment Product is denominated in a currency other than the official currency of the State in which this Product is marketed, the final gain will therefore depend on the exchange rate between the two currencies. This risk is not taken into account in the indicator above.

Performance Scenarios

The figures shown include all the costs of the Product itself, but may not include all the costs that you pay to your advisor or distributor. The figures do not take into account your personal tax situation, which may also affect how much you get back. What you will get from this Product depends on future market performance. Market developments in the future are uncertain and cannot be accurately predicted.

The unfavourable, moderate and favourable, scenarios presented represent examples using the best and worst performances, as well as the average performance of the Product and/or the appropriate benchmark indicator over the last 10 years. Markets could develop very differently in the future.

The stress scenario shows what you might get back in extreme market circumstances.
